OVERVIEW

Introduction

Purpose

Human Resource policies play a critical role in ensuring smooth organizational operations and maintaining a positive work environment. These policies help define employee expectations, workplace conduct, and operational procedures. A well-structured HR policy promotes fairness, transparency, and employee satisfaction.

Policy Areas Covered

- Leave Management for annual, sick, and casual leave entitlements
- Employee Behaviour and code of conduct guidelines
- Work-from-Home practices and communication requirements

This HR policy is designed for a startup organization to provide guidelines related to leave management, employee behaviour, and work-from-home practices.

LEAVE POLICY

Leave Policy

The leave policy is designed to provide employees with sufficient time off while ensuring business continuity. Employees are encouraged to maintain a healthy work-life balance while fulfilling their responsibilities.

Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to 12 days of annual leave per year. Leave must be applied at least 3 days in advance. Approval depends on business requirements and must be granted by the reporting manager.

Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 8 days of sick leave annually. A medical certificate is required for leave exceeding 2 days. Employees must inform their manager before the start of working hours.

Casual Leave

Employees are entitled to 5 casual leave days per year for personal matters or emergencies. Approval is required from the reporting manager, with short-notice leave allowed for emergencies.
